KICK OFF THE NEW YEAR WITH A LITTLE ELVIS!

Spotlight 29 Casino Welcomes Back Paul Casey on January 7th

COACHELLA, CA (December 12, 2011) ... ELVIS will be in the building! On Saturday, January 7th, Spotlight 29 Casino welcomes back the popular hit Las Vegas production, Paul Casey's ELVIS the Musical - American Trilogy Show.

ELVIS the Musical-American Trilogy Show is an original musical concept recreating the musical career of Elvis Presley. The multi-media show features video clips, live musicians, personal appearances from celebrities and friends of Elvis. Casey will take you on a journey of The King's career with over 40 songs performed. This is NOT an impersonator show.

Casey promises that this year's show will be bigger and better than ever with a full orchestra complete with a horn section and string ensemble. 14 costume changes and 48 scarves thrown into the audience add to the excitement of the show.

"My show is equivalent to any big Broadway show," said Casey. "People can expect a whole Elvis experience at my show."

Concert goers will also be able to view a display of Elvis memorabilia as well as a number of classic cars owned by The King. There will be several special celebrity appearances including one from Diamond Joe Esposito, long-time friend and member of the famed "Memphis Mafia." Esposito will be on hand to sign his books and greet fans.
