TOM SEDLOCK NAMED GENERAL MANAGER OF SPOTLIGHT 29 CASINO

(COACHELLA, CA) October 15, 2010 – Tom Sedlock has been named the new General Manager of Spotlight 29 Casino, it was announced today by Darrell Mike, Chairman of the Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians.

“We are thrilled to welcome Tom Sedlock in his new role as General Manager. Tom’s experience and knowledge of this casino are tremendous assets,” said Chairman Mike.

Sedlock brings over 20 years of casino experience to the General Manager position. He started at Spotlight 29 Casino in 1995, shortly after the casino opened its doors.

As the Director of Slots, Sedlock quickly built up the casino floor from just 72 slot machines to over 1,000 slots within the first year.

“I’m very excited to be named General Manager,” said Sedlock. “Working over the past 15 years at this casino, I have seen and been a part of the tremendous growth and expansion that has taken place at Spotlight 29. I plan to continue to push forward and help Spotlight 29 become more visible within our community, our customers, and the gaming industry. I look forward to working side-by-side with the Directors on property as well as members of the Tribe.”

The native Midwesterner hails from Ravenna, Ohio and is a graduate of Bowling Green State University. In Ohio he helped to manage a family vending machine business, worked for a beer and wine distributor and was a night club owner.

Sedlock moved to the Coachella Valley in 1995, after having spent six years as a slot host at the Aladdin in Las Vegas.

He currently resides in Bermuda Dunes with his wife Janet. He has two grown daughters and is expecting his first grandchild in May.
