ZZ TOP lay undisputed claim to being the longest running major rock band with original personnel intact. After 40 years together it's still Billy Gibbons, Dusty Hill and Frank Beard.

The band had a number of hits starting off, but it was not until the band released 1983's Eliminator that they reached a new height in popularity. With the birth of MTV, the trio found a new success with their video's, helping launch smash singles: "Gimme All Your Lovin'", "Sharp Dressed Man" and "Legs". Eliminator went on to sell over 10 million copies.

ZZ Top has sold more than 50 million albums worldwide, including 25 million albums in the US alone. The band has scored eight Top 40 hits on the Billboard Hot 100, six number one Mainstream Rock hits, and three MTV Video Music Awards. They were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2004.

ZZ TOP's music is always instantly recognizable, eminently powerful, profoundly soulful and 100% Texan in derivation. The band's support for the blues is unwavering both as interpreters of the music and preservers of its legacy.
