SPOTLIGHT 29 CASINO ANNOUNCES NEW MANGER OF STEAKHOUSE
Rudy Neira Named JEM Steakhouse Manager

COACHELLA, CA (July 7, 2010) ... Spotlight 29 Casino has named Rodolfo “Rudy” Neira the new Manger of JEM Steakhouse, it was announced today by casino officials.

Neira, who currently resides in La Quinta, CA, with his wife Noemi, brings to the table over 40 years in the food and beverage industry. The well-traveled Neira is fluent in four languages.

Having studied Hotel and Restaurant Management in Buenos Aires, Argentina, Neira chose to set his education to practice at premier restaurants and resorts across California. His dedication to professionalism and high dining standards has met with success in several top hotels, including the The Ritz Carlton Huntington Hotel and Spa. Additionally, Neira was awarded for his performance and ranked as a top associate while working with the Westin Bonaventure Hotel for over 20 years.

In 2000, Neira relocated to the desert and over the past 10 years has worked at a number of the valley’s leading dining locations including Cuistot in Palm Desert. His diverse background in the industry includes working as a server, managing special events and banquets, restaurant supervisor as well as manager.

“My goal is to make JEM the premiere steakhouse destination in the Coachella Valley,” said Neira. “We want our guests to continue to experience our passion for hospitality.”
