One of the most popular funk groups of the '70s, WAR were also one of the most eclectic, freely melding soul, Latin, jazz, blues, reggae, and rock influences into an effortlessly funky whole.

Although WAR's lyrics were sometimes political in nature (in keeping with their racially integrated lineup), their music almost always had a sunny, laid-back vibe emblematic of their Southern California roots. More than 30 years after they first appeared on a Los Angeles stage, WAR can still "deliver the word."

WAR is known for the hit songs "Low Rider", "Spill the Wine", "The Cisco Kid" and "Why Can't We Be Friends?".

Also performing will be Tierra and El Chicano. Tierra's songs include "Together", "Gonna Find Her", "Memories" and "Zoot Suit Boogie".

El Chicano is known for such songs as "Viva Tirado", "Tell Her She's Lovely", "Oye Cayuco" and "Sabor a Mi".
