Spotlight 29 Casino opened its doors January 14, 1995 to the public under the right of the National Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988, allowing Native American Tribes to operate Casinos. In 2001, the Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians teamed with Donald Trump and Spotlight 29 Casino became Trump 29 Casino. In 2006, the relationship with Donald Trump ended, and the casino returned to its original name, after which many new renovations were completed including an expansion of nearly 150,000 square feet, updating Spotlight 29 Casino to include nearly 250,000 square feet for gaming, offices, meetings and conferences, dining and entertainment.

Spotlight 29 Casino has been an important part of the community from philanthropy to employing thousands of employees over the years. Each year the casino hosts the Theresa A. Mike Fashion Show, which raises money for the Theresa A. Mike Scholarship Foundation. Over $400,000 in scholarships has been awarded to deserving students. The casino is also instrumental in The Native American Land Conservancy (NALC) and each year holds an annual golf tournament to raise funds.
