Frankie Avalon, Fabian and Bobby Rydell performing together as the Golden Boys have packed venues throughout the country since 1985, and has been called "one of the most exciting shows in show business." The show unites three exciting performers who emerged from the same South Philadelphia neighborhood, at the same time, and went on to become world renowned personalities featuring three the most popular teen idols of the late fifties and early sixties, the Golden Boys have proved to be an overwhelming live concert success. Countless television appearances, a special performance for the President of United States and a Golden Boys PBS special have brought in a vast audience of fans, and not only from the "Bandstand" generation, but all generations.

Frankie Avalon went from 50's teen idol to a national and international star. His first song "De De Dinah" became a smash hit and his recording of "Venus" was one of the biggest selling hits of the era. His follow-up hits include "Bobbysocks to Stockings," "Just As Your Heart," and "A Boy Without a Girl."

With a series of performances on Dick Clark's American Bandstand, Fabian became one of the top teen idols of the late 1950's. Fabian enjoyed great success with the hits "Turn Me Loose," "Hound Dog Man," and the million-selling "Tiger" single.

Another American Bandstand alum was Bobby Rydell, who had million selling singles with "Volare," "Wild One," and "We Got Love," and additional success with "Swingin' School," "Kissin' Time," and "Forget Him." This show is sure to bring back many a teenage memory!
